

Born in Italy, Alessandro Nasi grew up in New York and returned to Italy where he obtained a degree in Economics from the University of Turin.

Mr Nasi started his professional career as a financial analyst, gaining different experiences at several Investment banks and Private Equity funds, both in Europe and the US.

He then joined the Fiat Group in 2005 as manager of Corporate and Business Development, heading the APAC division and supporting Fiat Group sectors in Asia Pacific.

In 2007 he was appointed Vice President of Business Development and member of the Steering Committee at Fiat Powertrain Technologies.

In 2008 he joined CNH in the role of Senior Vice President of Business Development when he also covered the position of Senior Vice President of Network Development.

In 2013 he was appointed President Specialty Vehicles, a role he held until January 2019 together with the position of Executive Coordinator of the Group Executive Council.

He is the Chairman of the Board of Comau SpA- Stellantis Group

He is the Chairman of the Board of Iveco Defence SpA and of Astra SpA - Iveco Group

He is a Director of CNH Industrial NV and of Iveco Group NV and Chairs the ESG Committees

Mr. Nasi is a Director of Giovanni Agnelli BV and EXOR NV

He is Chairman of GVS S.p.A

He is a member of the Strategic Advisory Board of 3 Boomerang Capital

He is a member of the Lego 4G Advisory Board and, since May 2024, Director of KIRKBI, the holding and investment company owner of the Lego Group.

Updated 05.06.2024